

Why can't celebrities of a certain age stop going on about their sex lives?

As bailiffs get set to bulldoze illegal campsite...

ANARCHISTS HIJACK THE TRAVELLERS' LAST STAND

HUNDREDS of anarchists and student protesters are plotting to join the battle against the bulldozing of Europe's largest illegal traveller camp.

Police fear bloody confrontations with bailiffs and officers as outsiders attempt to turn the protest into a politically-motivated riot.

About 50 anarchists have already

By Andrew Levy

coming days, say police sources. As the High Court yesterday gave the go-ahead for the camp at Crays Hill, Essex, to be closed down, the travellers were already digging in for a war of attrition.

The site - which the travellers bought and then built on without planning permission - had already been fortified in an attempt to deter forced removals.

Officers believe these fortifications are now being strengthened. There is barbed wire and scaffolding at the stockpiled which could be detonated, causing serious injury or even death.

Large tyres have been placed at strategic points as barriers - although it is believed these will be doused with petrol and set alight.

Travellers had already threatened all-out war if anyone tried to evict them.

An Essex police source said: 'Up to 2,000 people from 30 different groups could turn up, according to intelligence from a number of sources including social networking websites.'

'The residents of Dale Farm won't be

Cindy at 45, stunning lady in red